The University of Alberta would appreciate your careful completion of this questionnaire. The results help instructors and departments or faculties to initiate constructive change in curriculum and instruction. In addition, the results are one important factor in decisions affecting the career of your instructor. The numerical summaries for the ten questions listed below are available through the Students’ Union and the Graduate Students’ Association.

The ASR system will be accessible only by CED and students’ anonymity will be protected. Students who are concerned about the anonymity of their responses should submit their typed written comments within the period for which ASR is available to the Chair, Director or Dean, making sure to note the course number, section and name of the instructor.
